VIRGINIA NEWS

All Around the Old Dominion State.

The third annual session of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Virginia Methodist Episcopal Conference opened yesterday morning at Main Street Methodist Church, Danville, and will last until Friday. Mrs. Lee Britt, of Suffolk, president of the society, delivered her message and reported healthy progress along all lines. The society raised $30,808.61 last years and spent practically all of it. The membership in the conference is 14,563 and by the end of the year it is hoped to bring it to 15,000. The 114 delegates attending the conference heard last night Nellie Bennett and Elizabeth Lamb, both of Brazil, tell of their missionary work.

Judge Richard H. Cardwell, president of the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals, yesterday sent to Governor Stuart his resignation, to take effect on November 16. The resignation was accepted and Governor Stuart appointed Judge R. R. Prentiss, chairman of the State Corporation Commission, to fill the vacancy and announced that he would appoint Christopher B. Garnett, the present executive assistant to the State Tax Board, as successor to Judge Prentiss on the State Corporation Commission. The State Tax Board will fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Garnett's elevation. Judge Cardwell's resignation has been long anticipated.

The Synod of Virginia was opened last night at the Presbyterian Church in Lexington, with a sermon by the Rev. Dr. W. W. Moore, president of the Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, in the absence of Dr. James Graham, the retiring moderator, who was compelled to return to his mission work in China. The business session of the synod began today, and the meetings will continue through Friday. The Rev. J. M. Montgomery, assistant pastor of the Lexington church, was ordained yesterday by the Lexington Presbytery, which convened for that purpose.

The seventy-first convention of the Southern Conference of the Synod of Virginia was opened last night in Muhlenberg Lutheran Church in Harrisonburg with the conference sermon by the Rev. J. W. Shuey, of Lexington, the retiring president. Twenty-five delegates, clerical and lay, were present, representing 15 pastorates and 30 congregations, with 4,000 communicants. The upper valley counties, with parishes in Lynchburg, Richmond, Newport News, and Norfolk, are embraced in the conference.

Miss Edith Sheperd, 18 years old, daughter of R. H. Sheperd, a Lynchburg merchant, was assaulted Sunday night near her home by an unknown negro. The assailant embraced her and endeavored to close her mouth with his hand, but she was able to scream and the black fled. A neighbor, attracted by the cries, fired several shots at the negro, who escaped.

No action toward the restoration of dividends was taken at the annual meeting of stock holders of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway yesterday in Richmond. All members of the board of directors were re-elected.

Thornton Edwards, aged 62 years, a negro, was found murdered near the Forest Turnpike, several miles west of Lynchburg, on Sunday morning. The indications are that the negro attempted to run when held up for purposes of robbery. A bullet struck him in the back and was taken out of his left chest. When found, the negro had 50 cents in his mouth and 30 cents in one of his hands. Two white men, who claimed to have heard the shooting, say they were held up shortly afterwards by a negro, who ran from the direction of the shots were fired.

William Allen, cousin of the Allen boys, involved in the Hillsville Court-house slaughter, yesterday seriously slashed Patrick Sheehan, of New York, said to be a relative of Brooklyn's Democratic boss, at Mont-Alto, Pa. Sheehan's face was laid open with the knife for more than seven inches. He was also slashed across the abdomen, and it is feared this gash may result in his death. Despite his wounds, Sheehan overpowered his assailant by beating him over the head with a shoe. Both were arrested and taken to Chambersburg, Pa., in a hearse, pressed into service as a police patrol.

All Macedonian Jews of the military classes of 1913, 1914 and 1915 have been ordered to report to the colors of the Greek revolutionary government within three days. A proclamation issued today said that the reservists who failed to report would be treated as deserters.
